Submission terms and conditions

By submitting your concept to Jaguar Land Rover Limited (“JLR”) you agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Submission of your concept to JLR is without charge or obligation and does not in any way oblige JLR to examine, test or otherwise review your concept nor to actually implement, apply or use your concept.
2. In the event JLR decides in its discretion to review your submission and the concept it shall do so entirely as it sees fit and without restriction.
3. You grant a licence to JLR in order to review your submission and carry out a thorough review of your concept. Such review shall not be construed as JLR providing any service to you and no warranty is given that any steps taken will be done with reasonable care.
4. You will include in the submission a short summary of any previous submission of the concept (whether to JLR or any other business or person) including with whom it was shared and the outcome of that submission(s).
5. Save for your contact details (so we may communicate with you about your concept) you should not include any personal data in the submission.
6. You warrant that:
 - a. You are permitted to share the concept with JLR.
 - b. You hold all rights necessary to develop the concept and bring it to market without restriction.
 - c. For a period of 6 weeks from the date of this submission you will not share OR DISCUSS the concept with any OEM, or any supplier to an OEM, other than JLR.
 - d. Submitting your concept has not breached the terms of use for the UK Jaguar Land Rover website pages.

7. If the concept is not of interest to JLR, you will be informed without any reasons being provided and a summary of your submission will not be retained by JLR.
8. If the concept is of interest to JLR, we will contact you to agree on the approach going forward and further steps to be taken.
9. You agree to the Jaguar Land Rover Corporate Website Privacy Policy and agree to comply with the terms of use for the UK Jaguar Land Rover website pages.
10. This agreement is subject to the law of England and Wales. You and JLR agree that this agreement is subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
